Motion to Object to Notice of Production From Non-Party

COMES NOW WILLIAM A. CABANA, pro se, respectfully objecting to Respondent's Notice of Production From Non-Party of Paypal, Inc. for financial documents. In support he offers,

1. Personal financial documents and information are of the utmost privacy to a Floridian.
2. Sharon Mayo request for my personal financial records is a violation of my Florida Constitutional Right of Privacy (Article I Section 23).
3. All assets in my personal financial accounts are for my personal benefit.
4. The state lacks a compelling state interest to require the Petitioner to disclose personal financial information over 33 years after dissolution of his marriage.
5. The state lacks a compelling state interest to require the Petitioner to disclose personal financial information when a fairly recent financial affidavit on record with this court indicates the Petitioner's financial status, i.e. he has income below the United States Department of Health and Human Services 2004 poverty income level for a single person. The financial affidavit filed June 9, 2005 indicates his assets and liabilities and income.

Respectfully submitted,

William A. Cabana, pro se
