Former Husband's Motion To Grant An Extension Of Time

COMES NOW the former husband WILLIAM CABANA, pro se, states as follows:

1. This matter came before the court on June 1, 2005 on a Motion to Compel a financial affidavit and interrogatories.
2. The time allotted to comply with the order by The Honorable Martin Colin was 10 days. On the order completed by opposing attorney and signed at the hearing by The Honorable Martin Colin, was indicated that the financial affidavit and interrogatories were due on June 10, 2005.
3. The date of June 10, 2005 does not allow a full 10 days to comply with the ruling since the date of the ruling does not count in the determination of the due date according to the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure 1.090. The correct date in allotting the time of ten (10) days should have been June 11, 2005.

4. In attempting to comply with the ruling, Former Husband finds the ten (10) days allotted are inadequate to accumulate the necessary records and is requesting an extension of time of at least twenty (20) more days. The normal period allotted for completing a financial affidavit and interrogatories is 30 days as indicated in the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure 1.340.

WHEREFORE former husband prays that this Honorable Court enter an order granting the extension of time of an additional twenty (20) days to comply with the thirty (30) days normally allotted.

Respectfully submitted,

William A. Cabana, pro se
